

THE HISTORY OF NOW

Black History In Focus

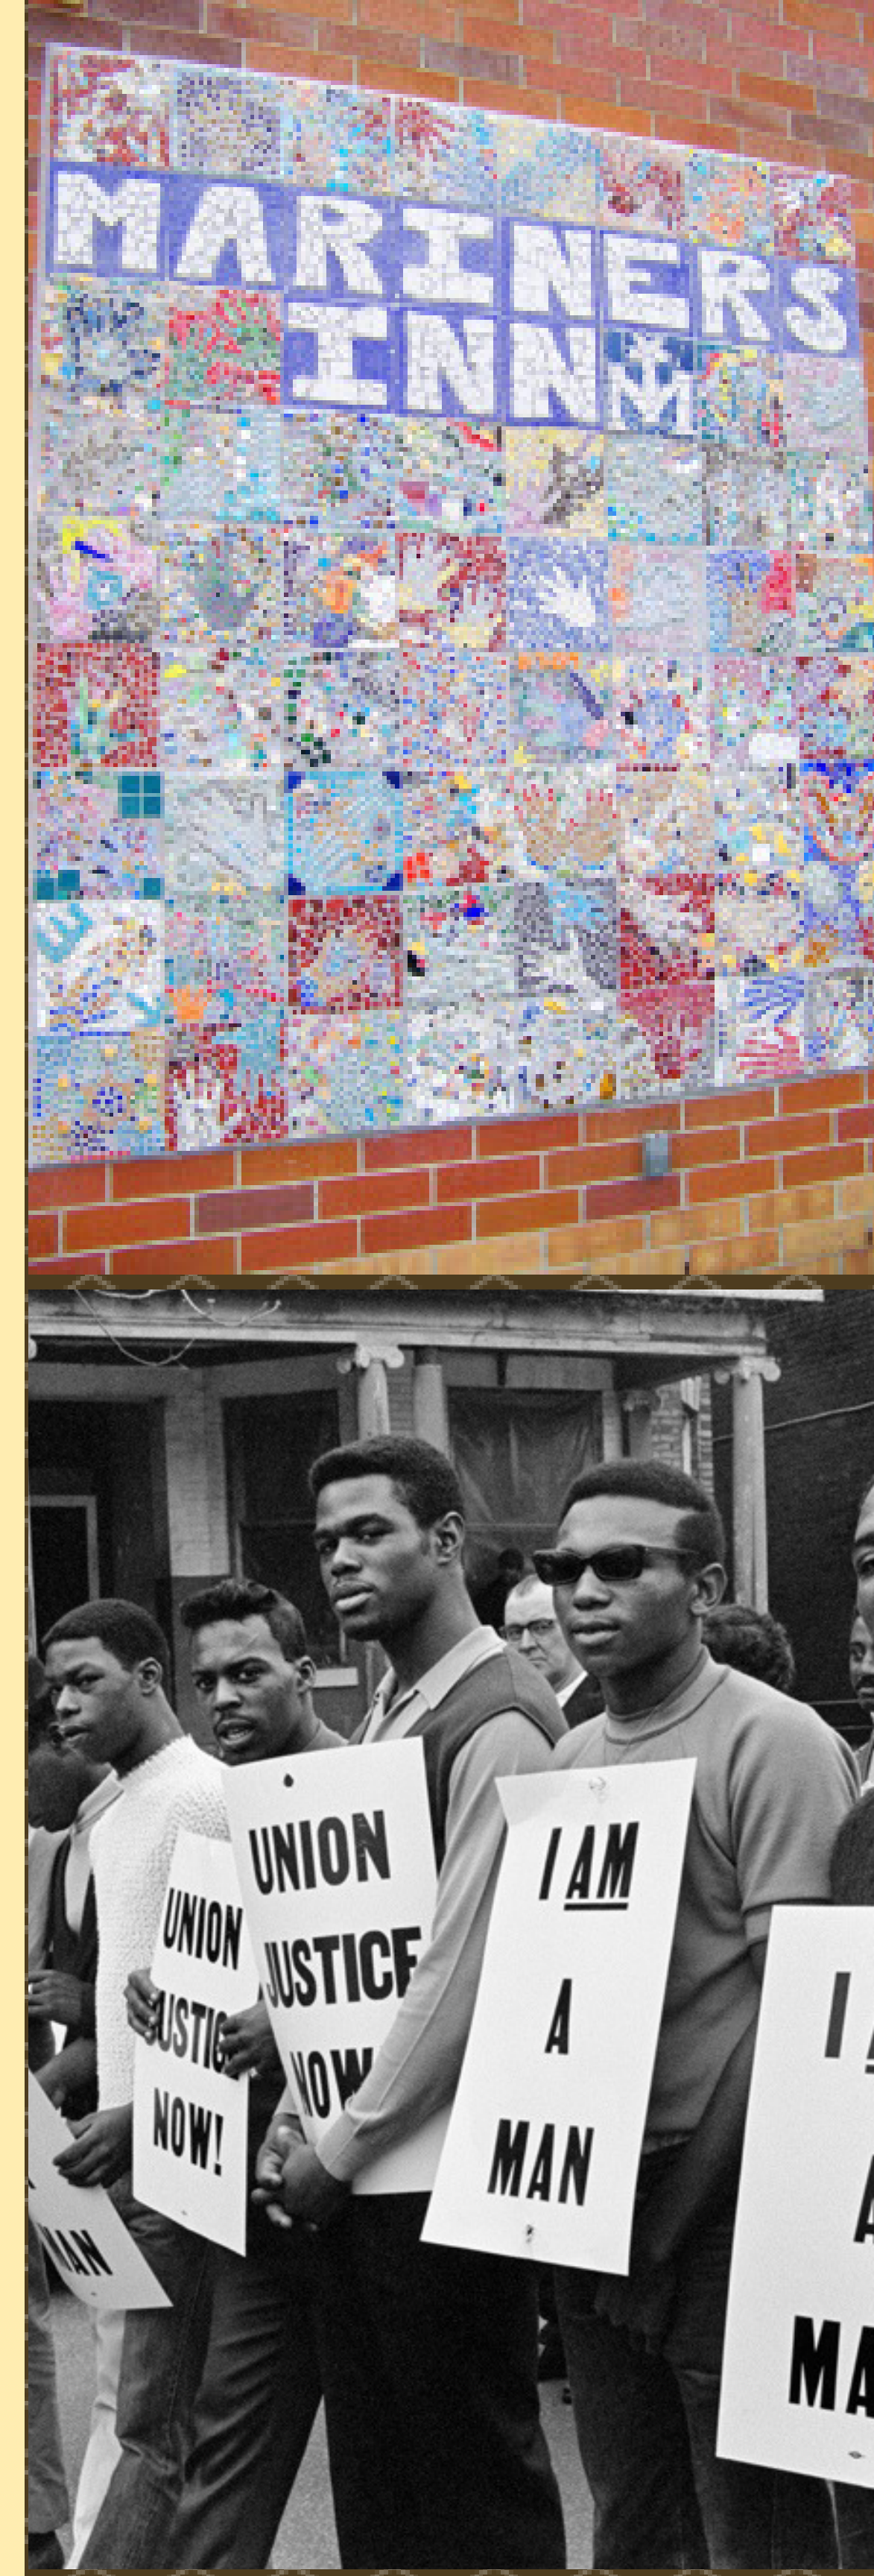

An Impact Project by Shaina Davidson
In Partnership With Mariners Inn

The Design Question

"How might we empower the residents of Mariners Inn through the examination of the historical, present, and future context of Blacks in Detroit and abroad?"

The Project Partners

Mariners Inn is a leading treatment center, nationally acclaimed for its professional approach toward alleviating the problems of homelessness and substance abuse. The Mayor's Office has cited the Inn as one of Detroit's model programs.

The Idea

A curriculum to empower the residents of Mariners Inn through a review of American History. This review will shine light on the perseverance and successes of Black Americans in the face of adversity.

The Desired Outcomes

- Residents are empowered
- Residents understand the racial context of their shared experiences
- Residents recognize their talents, abilities, and strengths

“ Misunderstood, potential, powerful but feared, resilient...”

“ Everyone here should be in this class! ”
